participated in the training course

A HUG FOR ALL

in Athens, Greece

from 17/11/2022 to 01/12/2022

About the project

The current project was a Training Course for Youth Workers, Students and Youngsters who would like to gain knowledge about the issue of Refugees' inclusion and integration into EU Society. The project offered theoretical base according to the official international terminology and several types of workshops so the participants can be more aware in such issues, to become further sensitized and to develop the proper level of empathy about people who are persecuted around the world.
